CATHEDRAL
900 YEARS

JOURNEY AND REST

Chapter's strategic vision

At the heart of any Cathedral is a small group of people who are called to maintain the daily offering of prayer and worship. The Cathedral Chapter (governing body), which includes the Dean and Canons, oversees the life of the Cathedral in all its aspects.

The Chapter's vision is to bring the love of God to city, county and nation through worship, witness, hospitality and welcome. Faithful worship, active discipleship, outward-looking mission, life-long learning, service to the community, and joyful celebration are important, and in each of these aspects of the Cathedral's life Chapter continues to draw inspiration from its Augustinian heritage.

Building on the Cathedral's long spiritual heritage and strength, Chapter aims to promote loving community where justice is seen to matter, common humanity is owned, people can find support, nurture and blessing and in which lives can be transformed and renewed. Worship is the beating heart of the Cathedral from which both activity and service to our community flow. Careful pastoral engagement by the clergy and pastoral teams reflects Christ's great love for all people, and Chapter places a very high value on the safeguarding of children and those who are vulnerable.

Chapter is driving towards sustainability. Its commercial activities, catering/retail sales/events, are overseen by the directors of the Cathedral's trading arm (Carlisle Cathedral Enterprises Ltd - CCEL) Chapter's programme of activity shapes the ways in which the Cathedral engages with visitors, schools and communities to promote public engagement with our history, faith and collections. Chapter aims to make a significant contribution to the City's cultural and heritage economies.

A team of volunteers supports very many aspects of the Cathedral's day-to-day operation.

About Carlisle Cathedral

900th Anniversary

The institution now known as Carlisle Cathedral came to life in 1122.

2022 marks the 900th anniversary of the Cathedral. It was founded by King Henry I as an Augustinian Priory in 1122 and became the Cathedral Church of the newly created Diocese of Carlisle eleven years later.

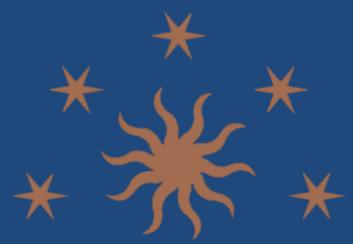

The area, close to the Scottish border, was unruly and the King wished to impose his authority. A Cathedral was a perfect symbol of that authority. Over the intervening 900 years Carlisle's cathedral has seen dramatic changes in the life of the nation, reflecting the turbulent history of the Borderlands. Thankfully the cathedral is more peaceful nowadays and this house of God continues to serve its original purpose.

Through these 900 years the Cathedral has served the city and county – as a house of worship, a beacon of hope and as a place of rest within the restless history of life on the Border. The Cathedral has welcomed and given shelter to visitors, travellers and pilgrims – from the grandest monarch to the humblest wayfarer. A daily pattern of prayer has undergirded everything.

As we emerge from the Coronavirus pandemic, we have prepared a programme of events, activities and engagement which is aimed to allow many people, in a multitude of ways, to be part of this continuing pattern of journey and rest.

We hope many people will want to come and be part of this special year. Together we can make 2022 a memorable and enriching year for the people of our city and county.

West Walls

In 2019, the Carlisle Cathedral Development Trust (CCDT) bought the former Carlisle Diocesan Office (Church House), the Resource Centre buildings (the latter now let to St George's URC) and the associated car park – which plot is adjacent with the Cathedral precinct. Essential repair work, funded by the CCDT, was put in hand in 2019/2020 and a staged project is under way to move the Cathedral office from its current location, 7 The Abbey, to Church House.

Music

The Chapter gives strong financial support to the Cathedral's music department to maintain the Cathedral's English choral tradition. Sunday worship is supported by the Cathedral's Boys' and Girls' Choir who sing with the 6 Lay Clerks. The Cathedral Consort of teenage singers sing once a week and on occasional Sundays. Choristers are recruited during Year 3 from local primary schools. Choral Evensong is sung each weeknight except Saturdays.

Music is overseen by the Dean. Operationally, it is under the direction of the Director of Music supported by the Assistant Organist and Organ Scholar. There is a valued school outreach programme. Development of endowment funding for music has been identified as an important medium-term aim.

Job Description: Head of Income Generation

The Chapter (governing body) of Carlisle Cathedral is looking to appoint a passionate and innovative Head of Income Generation with a successful track record to this role.

The Head of Income Generation's principal responsibilities will be:

- To understand the income generation/fundraising needs of the Cathedral and develop a mapping of the various potential sources of income, funds and grants.
- Responsible as a Grants Officer ensuring the production and management of all grant and trust applications.
- To develop and implement a coordinated overarching strategy for, and manage, all the Cathedral's income generation activities.
- To develop and undertake a Regular Giving, Major Donor and Legacy strategy.

Key Responsibilities

- To provide a coordinated overarching income generation strategy for all the Cathedral's fundraising activities.
- Develop a rolling annual plan of fundraising activities together with funding targets across the Cathedral with the Cathedral Leadership, and oversee its implementation.
- Specifically develop an understanding of the various potential fundraising bodies and individuals, and the most appropriate methods of engaging with them.
- To understand the Cathedral's intended developments with their business case and other drivers, in order to develop the most appropriate fundraising strategy. From this, identify the most appropriate potential funders or groups of funders and the processes and basis for making the approaches to each.
- Develop appropriate bids, applications, brochures, and other requirements to support the approaches to the various funder groups.
- Work with the Dean and Chapter to build effective relationships with potential funders to underpin and enhance the likelihood of successful donations and longer-term affiliations.
- To help manage the Customer Relationship Management (CRM) system, ensuring it is used consistently and in line with current requirements.
- The role requires the job holder to work closely with the Cathedral leadership and other Cathedral departments to ensure that the fundraising strategy is both supported and implemented consistently.
- In addition to the planned activities, the Cathedral will continue to build relationships with specific individuals and bodies that have a history of supporting the Cathedral and may choose to pursue funding opportunities if they arise.
- The Cathedral needs to be seen to be working to ethical standards consistent with its position as a faith organisation, and the job holder needs to be mindful of any potential conflicts or adverse publicity that could arise from fundraising activities.
- Be aware of the current health and safety policy and procedures.
- The successful candidate will be expected to attend courses, events and meetings as required to update on legislation and best practices, and other opportunities for personal development.
- All Cathedral employees are subject to completion of the Cathedral's safer recruitment process to the level appropriate for their position.

Applicant & Candidate Privacy Policy

Chapter of Carlisle Cathedral and Carlisle Cathedral Enterprises Ltd (together 'the Cathedral' or 'we') are committed to respecting the privacy of the job applicants and we have a duty to protect the personal data of job applicants. Personal data is information that can identify a person, such as name, address, telephone number and email address.

Types of information we collect

This policy covers the information you share with us and/or which may be acquired during the application or recruitment process including:

The organisation collects a range of information about you. This includes:

- your name, address and contact details, including email address and telephone number;
- details of your qualifications, skills, experience and employment history;
- information about your current level of remuneration, including benefit entitlements;
- whether or not you have a disability for which the organisation needs to make reasonable adjustments during the recruitment process;
- information about your entitlement to work in the UK; and
- equal opportunities monitoring information, including information about your ethnic origin, sexual orientation, health and religion or belief.

The organisation collects this information in a variety of ways. For example, data might be contained in application forms, CVs or resumes, obtained from your passport or other identity documents, or collected through interviews or other forms of assessment, including online tests.

The organisation will seek information from third parties only once a job offer to you has been made and will inform you that it is doing so.

Data will be stored in a range of different places, including on your application record, in HR management systems and on other IT systems including email.

How we use information we collect

Your information will be used by the Cathedral for the purposes of carrying out its application and recruitment process which includes:

- Assessing your skills, qualifications and interests against our job opportunities;
- Verifying your information and carrying out reference checks and/or conducting background checks (where applicable) if you are offered a position;
- Communications with you about the recruitment process and/or your application(s), including, in appropriate cases, informing you of other potential job opportunities;
- Making improvements to the Cathedral's application and/or recruitment process including improving diversity in recruitment practices;
- Complying with applicable laws, regulations, legal processes or enforceable governmental requests.

We will also use your information to protect the rights and property of the Cathedral, our affiliated organisations, applicants, candidates, employees or the public as required or permitted by law.

If you are offered and accept employment with the Cathedral, the information collected during the application and recruitment process will become part of your employment record.

Who has access to data?

Your information may be shared internally for the purposes of the recruitment exercise. This includes members of the HR team, recruiting managers and interviewers involved in the recruitment process. The organisation will not share your data with third parties (although it may do so with our affiliated organisations) unless your application for employment is successful and it makes you an offer of employment. The organisation will then share your data with former employers to obtain references for you, employment background check providers to obtain necessary background checks and the Disclosure and Barring Service to obtain necessary criminal records checks. It is your responsibility to obtain consent from referees before providing their personal information to the Cathedral.

The organisation will not transfer your data outside the European Economic Area.

How does the organisation protect data?

The organisation takes the security of your data seriously. It has internal policies and controls in place to ensure that your data is not lost, accidentally destroyed, misused, or disclosed, and is not accessed except by our employees in the proper performance of their duties.

For how long does the organisation keep data ?

If your application for employment is unsuccessful, the organisation will hold your data on file for six months after the end of the relevant recruitment process. If you agree to allow the organisation to keep your personal data on file, the organisations will hold your data on file for a further six months for consideration for future employment opportunities. At the end of that period or once you withdraw your consent, your data is deleted or destroyed.

If your application for employment is successful, personal data gathered during the recruitment process will be transferred to your personnel file and retained during your employment. The periods for which your data will be held will be provided to you in a new privacy notice.

Your rights

As a data subject, you have a number of rights. You can:

- access and obtain a copy of your data on request;
- require the organisation to change incorrect or incomplete data;
- require the organisation to delete or stop processing your data, for example where the data is no longer necessary for the purposes of processing; and
- object to the processing of your data where the organisation is relying on its legitimate interests as the legal ground for processing.

If you would like to exercise any of these rights, please contact the Cathedral Office.

If you believe that the organisation has not complied with your data protection rights, you can complain to the Information Commissioner.

What if you do not provide personal data?

You are under no statutory or contractual obligation to provide data to the organisation during the recruitment process. However, if you do not provide the information, the organisation may not be able to process your application properly or at all.

Automated decision-making

Recruitment processes are not based solely on automated decision-making.
